(Replaced A.6/1994.)

(2) Any such assessment shall be subject to objection and appeal as provided in this Order.

(3) If it appears to the Commissioner that any person is unable from any cause to furnish an accurate return of his income, the Commissioner may agree with such person as to what shall be the taxable income of such person and any taxable income so agreed shall not be subject to any objection or appeal.

Additional tax in case of default or omission.

40. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Commissioner shall require a taxpayer to pay in addition to the tax chargeable in respect of his taxable income —

- (a) if he makes default in rendering a return in respect of any year of assessment, an amount equal to twice the tax chargeable in respect of his taxable income for such year of assessment;
- (b) if he omits from his return any amount which ought to have been included therein, an amount equal to twice the difference between the tax as calculated in respect of the taxable income returned by him and the tax properly chargeable in respect of his taxable income as finally determined after including the amount omitted; or
- (c) if he makes any incorrect statement in any return rendered by him which results or would if accepted result in the assessment of the normal tax at an amount which is less than the tax properly chargeable, an amount equal to twice the difference between the tax as assessed in accordance with the return made by him and the tax properly chargeable if the incorrect statement had not been made.

(2) The additional amounts of tax payable under this section may be chargeable whether the taxable income or any part thereof is estimated by the Commissioner in terms of section 39, or agreed with the taxpayer in terms of subsection (3) thereof, or such taxable income or any part thereof as is determined from accounts rendered by the taxpayer.

(3) (a) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the default in rendering the return was not due to any intent either to defraud the revenue or to postpone the payment by the taxpayer of the tax chargeable or that any such omission or incorrect statement was not due to any intent to evade taxation on the part of the taxpayer, he may waive or remit such part or all of such additional charge as he may think fit.

(b) In the event the Commissioner deciding not to remit the whole of the additional charge imposed under subsection (1), his decision shall be subject to objection and appeal.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, the Commissioner may either before or after an assessment is issued agree with the taxpayer on the amount of the additional charge to be paid, and the amount so agreed upon shall not be subject to objection and appeal.

(Amended A.6/1994.)

(4) The powers conferred upon the Commissioner by this section shall be in addition to any right conferred upon him by this Order to take proceedings for the recovery of any penalties for evading or avoiding assessment of the payment of tax or attempting to do so.

(5) Any taxpayer, who in determining his taxable income as disclosed by his return, deducts or sets off any amount the deduction or set off whereof is not permissible under this Order or shows as an expenditure or loss any amount which he has in fact not expended or lost, shall be deemed for the purpose of this section to have omitted such amount from his return.

(6) Any taxpayer who wilfully fails to disclose in any return made by him any facts which should be disclosed and the disclosure of which would result in the taxation of the taxpayer's income on an amount which is higher than the amount upon which such income would be taxable on such return, shall be deemed, for the purpose of this section, to have omitted from his return the amount by which the former amount exceeds the latter.

(7) If in any year of assessment in which the determination of the taxable income of the taxpayer does not result in an assessed loss, he is entitled to the set-off of a balance of assessed loss from the previous year of assessment and such balance is less than it would have been had it been calculated on the basis of the returns rendered by him, he shall be deemed, for the purpose of this section, to have omitted from his return for the first-mentioned year of assessment an amount equal to the difference between the amount at which such balance is finally determined and the amount at which it would have been determined on such basis.

41. (1) Notwithstanding section 52(4) if at any time the Commissioner is satisfied that any amounts which should have been subject to tax have not been assessed to tax under this Order or any previous income tax law, or than any amount of tax which was chargeable and should have been assessed under this Order has not been assessed, he may raise assessments in respect of such amounts notwithstanding that assessments may have been made upon the person concerned in respect of the year or years of assessment in respect of which the amounts in question are assessable: (Amended A.6/1987.)

Provided that the Commissioner shall not raise any assessment under this subsection —

- (a) after the expiry of six years from the date of assessment in terms of which any amount which should have been assessed to tax under such assessment was not so assessed unless he is satisfied that the amount was not so assessed because of fraud or misrepresentation or non-disclosure of material facts;
- (b) if the amount which should have been subject to tax was not assessed to tax, in accordance with the practice generally prevailing at the time when the assessment was made; or
- (c) in respect of any amount, if any previous assessment made on the person concerned for the year of assessment in question has in respect of such amount been amended or reduced pursuant to any order of court unless such order was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation or non-disclosure of material facts.

(2) Sections 39 and 40 shall apply to any assessment or additional assessments made by the Commissioner under the powers conferred by this section.

Assessments and the recording thereof.

42. (1) The particulars of every assessment and the amount of tax payable thereon shall be recorded or filed and kept in the office of the Commissioner.

(2) Upon recording or filing of the particulars of any assessment, the Commissioner shall give notice of the assessment to the taxpayer whose income has been assessed.

(3) Such notice shall be sent to the taxpayer by post or delivered to such person in such other manner as the Commissioner may consider necessary or convenient.

(4) The Commissioner shall in the notice of assessment give notice to the taxpayer that any objection to the assessment made must be sent to him within twenty one days after the date of such notice or within such further time as he or the court may for good cause allow.

Inspection of assessments.

43. Particulars of income tax assessments shall not be open to public inspection, but every taxpayer shall be entitled to copies certified by or on behalf of the Commissioner of such entries as relate to the assessment of his own income.

Liability of representative taxpayer.

45. Every representative taxpayer, as regards the income to which he is entitled in his representative capacity or of which in such capacity he has the management, receipt, disposal, remittance, payment or control, shall be chargeable with the taxation imposed by this Order and shall be subject in all respects to the same duties, responsibilities and liabilities as if the income were income received by or accruing to or in favour of him beneficially, except that no representative taxpayer (not being a public officer or a company) shall, save as provided by section 47, be personally liable for the payment of any tax beyond the amount of the income of which he has the management, receipt, disposal or control in such capacity:

Provided that nothing herein shall, if the representative taxpayer acts as an agent or trustee or in any other capacity for several persons, prevent him from claiming that each agency or trust or other capacity shall be treated separately for the purpose of claiming any exemption or deduction provided by this Order.

(6) Every company shall keep the office of public officer constantly filled and shall at all times maintain a place for the service or delivery of notices in accordance with sub-section (4).

(12) Everything done by any public officer which he is required to do in his representative capacity shall be deemed to have been done by the company which he represents.

(13) The absence or non-appointment of a public officer shall not exonerate any company from the necessity of complying with this Order, but the company shall in all respects be subject to and liable to comply with this Order as if there were no requirement to appoint such officer.

(14) Any public officer appointed under the Income Tax (Consolidation) Act, No. 84 of 1959 shall, unless the Commissioner disapproves of his appointment, be deemed to be appointed under this Order:

(4) Any decision of the Commissioner under subsection (1), (2) or (3) shall be subject to objection and appeal, and if in any proceedings relating thereto it is proved that the transaction, operation, scheme, agreement or change in shareholding in question would result in the avoidance or the postponement of liability for payment of any tax, duty or levy on income or in the reduction of the amount thereof, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved —

- (a) in the case of any such transaction, operation or scheme, that its sole or one of its main purposes was the avoidance or the postponement of such liability or the reduction of the amount of such liability; or
- (b) in the case of any such agreement or change in shareholding, that it has been entered into or effected solely or mainly for the purpose of utilising the assessed loss or balance of assessed loss in question in order to avoid or postpone such liability or to reduce the amount thereof.

(2) An employer may, at the written request of any employee, deduct or withhold from any amount of remuneration an amount by way of employees' tax greater than that required to be deducted or withheld in terms of sub-paragraph (1), and shall remit such amount to the Commissioner, and the provisions of this Schedule relating to employees' tax shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in respect of such amount.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, “month” means calendar month.

(4) An amount required to be deducted or withheld from any amount of remuneration under this Schedule by way of employees' tax shall be calculated on the balance of such amount of remuneration remaining after deducting any current contribution by the employee concerned to any pension fund (excluding so much of such contribution to a pension fund not established by law as is made at a rate exceeding the sum specified in section 14(1)(i)) which is calculated with reference to such amount of remuneration or to a portion of such amount or to the period in respect of which the amount of remuneration is paid or payable and which the employer is, vis-a-vis the employee concerned, entitled or required to deduct or withhold from such amount of remuneration. (Amended A.6/1991.)

3. (1) The liability of any employer to deduct or withhold any amount of employees' tax in terms of paragraph 2 shall not be reduced or extinguished by reason of the fact that the employer has a right or is otherwise than in terms of any law under an obligation to deduct or withhold any other amount from the employees' remuneration, and such right or obligation shall, notwithstanding anything in any other law, for all purposes be deemed to have reference only to the amount of the remuneration remaining after the amount of the employees' tax referred to in such paragraph has been deducted or withheld.

(2) Paragraph 2 shall apply in respect of all amounts payable by way of remuneration, notwithstanding any other law which provides that any such amount shall not be reduced or shall not be subject to attachment.

4. Any amount required to be deducted or withheld in terms of paragraph 2 shall be a debt due to the Government, and the employer concerned shall save as otherwise provided, be absolutely liable for the due payment thereof to the Commissioner.

5. (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (6), any employer who fails to deduct or withhold the full amount of employees' tax as provided in paragraph 2 shall be personally liable for the payment to the Commissioner of the amount which he fails to deduct or withhold, and shall, subject to sub-paragraph (2) hereof, pay such amount to the Commissioner not later than the date on which payment should have been made if the employees' tax had in fact been deducted or withheld in terms of paragraph 2.

(2) If the employer has failed to deduct or withhold employees' tax in terms of paragraph 2 and the Commissioner is satisfied that the failure was not due to an intent to postpone payment of the tax or to evade the employer's obligations under this Schedule, the Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that there is a reasonable prospect of ultimately recovering the tax from the employee, absolve the employer from his liability under sub-paragraph (1).

(3) An employer who has not been absolved from liability as provided in sub-paragraph (2) shall have a right of recovery against the employee in respect of the amount paid by the employer in terms of sub-paragraph (1) in respect of such employee, and such amount may in addition to any other right of recovery be deducted from future remuneration which may become payable by the employer to such employee, in such manner as the Commissioner may determine.

(4) Until such time as an employee pays to his employer any amount which is due to the employer in terms of sub-paragraph (3), such employee shall not be entitled to receive from the employer an employees' tax certificate in respect of such amount.

(5) Any amount which an employer is required to pay in terms of sub-paragraph (1) and which he is entitled to recover from the employee in terms of sub-paragraph (3) shall, in so far as the employer only is concerned, be deemed to be a penalty due and payable by such employer.

(6) Sub-paragraph (1) shall not apply in respect of any amount or any portion of any amount of employees' tax which an employer has failed to deduct or withhold and in respect of which paragraph 17(3) applies.

6. (1) If an employer fails to pay any amount of employees' tax for which he is liable within the period allowed for payment thereof in terms of paragraph 2 he shall, in addition to any other penalty or charge for which he may be liable under this Order, pay a penalty equal to twenty per centum of such amount. (Amended A.7/1992.)

(2) The Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that the employer's failure to pay the amount of employees' tax was not due to an intent to postpone payment of such tax or otherwise evade his obligation under this Order and was not designed to enable the employee concerned to evade such employees' obligations under this Order, remit the whole or any part of the penalty imposed under sub-paragraph (1).

(3) The penalty imposed under sub-paragraph (1) shall be paid to the Commissioner when payment is made of the amount of employees' tax to which it refers or within such further period as the Commissioner may approve.

7. Any agreement between an employer and an employee whereby the employee undertakes not to deduct or withhold employees' tax shall be void.

8. An employee shall not be entitled to recover from an employer any amount deducted or withheld by the employer from the employees' remuneration in terms of paragraph 2.

Deduction tables.

9. (1) The Commissioner may from time to time, having regard to the rates of normal tax as fixed by law and to any other factors having a bearing upon the probable liability of taxpayers for those taxes prescribe deduction tables applicable to such classes of employees as he may determine, and the manner in which such tables shall be applied, and the amount of employees' tax to be deducted from any amount of remuneration shall, subject to sub-paragraph (3) and paragraphs 10, 11 and 12 of this Schedule, be determined in accordance with such tables, or, if sub-paragraph (3) is applicable, in accordance with such sub-paragraph. (Amended A.6/1994.)

(2) Any tables prescribed by the Commissioner in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) shall come into force on such date as may be notified by the Commissioner in the Gazette, and shall remain in force until withdrawn by the Commissioner.

(3) The amount to be deducted or withheld in respect of employee's tax from any lump sum to which the proviso to paragraph (b) of the definition of "gross income" applies or any other lump sum to which the employee is entitled by virtue of the employee's agreement of employment, shall be ascertained by the employer from the Commissioner before paying out such lump sum, and the Commissioner's determination of the amount to be so deducted or with-held shall be final. (Amended A.10/1991.)

10. (1) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the circumstances warrant a variation of the basis provided in paragraph 9 for the determination of amounts of employees' tax to be deducted or withheld from remuneration of employees in the case of any employer, he may agree with such employer as to the basis of determination of such amounts to be applied by such employer, and the amounts to be deducted or withheld by such employer in terms of paragraph 2 shall, subject to paragraphs 11 and 12, be determined accordingly.

(2) Any agreement made in terms of sub-paragraph (1) shall remain in force indefinitely, but the Commissioner or the employer concerned may give notice of termination thereof and upon the expiry of a period of three months from the date of such notice such agreement shall terminate.

11. In order to alleviate hardship to an employee due to illness or other circumstances or to correct any error in regard to the calculation of employees' tax, whether arising from the furnishing to an employer by an employee of a false or incorrect return of personal particulars or otherwise, or if the employee has in terms of paragraph 12(2) applied to the Commissioner for the issue of a directive to his employer, to enable the employer to deduct or withhold the correct amount by way of employees' tax, the Commissioner may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, issue a directive to the employer concerned authorising the employer to refrain from deducting or withholding any amount under paragraph 2 by way of employees' tax from any remuneration due to the employee or to deduct or withhold by way of employees' tax a specified amount or an amount to be determined in accordance with a specified rate or scale, and the employer shall comply with such directive.

11A. (1) When, at the end of the tax year, there becomes known the amount of remuneration received by or accruing to any employee who was in continuous employment with the same employer in respect of such year of assessment, the employer concerned shall calculate and determine the amount of normal tax for which such employee is actually liable in respect of such year of assessment, and, subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(4) and to the applicable normal tax rates as prescribed, make the required adjustments to the amount of employees' tax deductible or withholdable in respect of such employee.

(2) (i) Where at the end of any tax year, the employees' tax actually deducted or withheld from any remuneration paid or payable by an employer to an employee during any tax year exceeds the amount required to be deducted or withheld in terms of subparagraph (1) above, the employer shall repay to such employee the amount of such excess.

(ii) Any amount of employees' tax which has been repaid by an employer to an employee under subparagraph (i) above may be deducted from any subsequent payment of employees' tax due by the employer.

(3) If the amount of employees' tax actually deducted or withheld from any remuneration paid or payable by an employer to an employee during any tax year is less than the amount required to be deducted or withheld in terms of subparagraph (1), then the employer shall pay the shortfall to the Commissioner and recover such amount from the employee.

(Added A.6/1994.)

Employees to furnish returns of personal particulars to employers.

12. (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), every employee shall furnish his employer with a return of personal particulars in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe, and shall furnish a fresh return within seven days of the date which any change in the particulars previously furnished occurs:

Provided that until a new return is received or a directive is received from the Commissioner in terms of paragraph 11, the employer shall regard the latest return submitted to him by the employee concerned as correct, and shall continue to determine the amounts to be deducted or withheld by way of employees' tax in accordance with the particulars disclosed therein.

(2) If for any reason an employee does not wish to furnish the return referred to in sub-paragraph (1), he may instead apply to the Commissioner in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe for the issue of a directive to his employer and in such case the Commissioner may in his discretion issue a directive to the employer as provided in paragraph 11.

(3) If an employer has not at any time received any return of personal particulars whatsoever from an employee as required by sub-paragraph (1), or has not in respect of such employee received a directive from the Commissioner as provided in paragraph 11, he shall, until such return or directive is received, deduct or withhold employees' tax under paragraph 9 or 10, as the case may be, at the rate applicable to a person who is not a married person and who is not entitled to have any child taken into account in the determination of the amount of employees' tax to be deducted or withheld.

(4) If the latest return of personal particulars furnished by any employee to his employer in terms of sub-paragraph (1) discloses that the employee is a divorced person the employer shall, until he has in respect of such employee received a directive from the Commissioner issued under paragraph 11, deduct or withhold employees' tax under paragraph 9 or 10, as the case may be, at the rate applicable to a person who is not a married person and with due regard to the number of children of the employee disclosed by such return who will not have attained the age of eighteen years on the last day of the employees' year of assessment during which the employees' tax is deducted or withheld.

Furnishing and obtaining of employees' tax certificates.

13. (1) Subject to paragraphs 5 and 17 every person who during any year of assessment deducts or withholds any amount by way of employees' tax as required by paragraph 2 shall, within the time allowed by sub-paragraph (2) hereof, deliver to each employee or former employee to whom remuneration has during the period in question been paid or become due by such person, an employees' tax certificate, in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe or approve, which shall show the total remuneration of such employee or former employee and the sum of the amounts of employees' tax deducted or withheld by such person from such remuneration during such period, excluding any amount of remuneration or employees' tax included in any other employees' tax certificate issued by such person unless such other certificate has been surrendered to such person by the employee or former employee and has been cancelled by such person and dealt with by him as provided in sub-paragraph (10).

(2) The employees' tax certificate referred to in sub-paragraph (1) shall be delivered —

- (a) if the person who is required to deliver the certificate has not ceased to be an employer in relation to the employee concerned, within fourteen days after the end of the period to which the certificate relates;
- (b) if such person has ceased to be an employer in relation to the employee concerned but has continued to be an employer in relation to other employees within fourteen days of the date on which he has so ceased;
- (c) if such person has ceased to be an employer within seven days of the date on which he has so ceased; or
- (d) within such further period as the Commissioner may approve in any particular case.

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2), a person shall, if the Commissioner having regard to the circumstances of the case so directs, be deemed not to have ceased to be an employer in relation to any of his casual employees who is likely from time to time to be re-employed by such person.

(4) Notwithstanding sub-paragraphs (1) and (2), any person who has deducted or withheld employees' tax from remuneration of any employee shall as and when required by the Commissioner deliver to such employee an employees' tax certificate, in such form as the Commissioner may approve, which shall show the total remuneration of such employee or former employee and the sum of the amounts of employees' tax deducted or withheld by such person from such remuneration during any period specified by the Commissioner, but excluding any amount of remuneration or employees' tax included in any other employees' tax certificate issued by such person unless such other certificate has been surrendered to such person by the employee or former employee and has been cancelled by such person and dealt with by him as provided in sub-paragraph (10).

(5) It shall be the duty of any employee or former employee who has not received an employees' tax certificate within the time allowed by sub-paragraph (2) forthwith to apply to the employer for such certificate.

(6) Every taxpayer shall, when rendering a return of income under section 33 attach to such return all employees' tax certificates in his possession which disclose information in respect of the year of assessment to which the return relates.

(7) It shall be sufficient compliance with sub-paragraph (1) or (4) in regard to the delivery of any employees' tax certificate to any employee or former employee if such certificate is delivered to the employees' authorised agent or the representative taxpayer in respect of the remuneration shown in such certificate or, if delivery cannot conveniently be effected by personal delivery, if such certificate is sent to the employee or former employee or such agent or representative taxpayer by registered post.

(8) An employer may at the request of the employee or former employee issue a duplicate employees' tax certificate, but any such duplicate shall be clearly marked as such and shall disclose full details of the original certificate.

(9) Unless authorised thereto by the Commissioner no duplicate employees' tax certificate may be issued by an employer otherwise than as provided in sub-paragraph (8).

(10) Any cancelled or spoiled employees' tax certificate shall not be destroyed by the employer concerned but shall be retained by him until the Commissioner requires it to be surrendered to him.

(11) The Commissioner shall control the issue to employers of stocks of unused employees' tax certificates and may prescribe conditions in regard to the manner in which such unused certificates may be used or as to the surrender of unused stocks of such certificates and every employer shall account to the Commissioner for used, unused, cancelled or spoiled certificates as and when required by the Commissioner.

(12) In the case of any employer who has a mechanised accounting system the Commissioner may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, approve the use by such employer of employees' tax certificates in a form other than the form prescribed for general use and, if any such employer fails to comply with the conditions imposed by the Commissioner, the Commissioner may withdraw his consent for the use of such certificates and the employer shall forthwith or from any date specified by the Commissioner cease to use such certificates, and shall within such period as the Commissioner may prescribe surrender to the Commissioner all unused stocks of such certificates.

(13) Every person who ceases to be an employer shall, unless the Commissioner otherwise directs, within fourteen days of his ceasing to be an employer surrender to the Commissioner all unused employees' tax certificates in his possession.

(14) If any person fails to surrender any unused employees' tax certificates as required by sub-paragraph (12) or (13), any officer engaged in carrying out his Order, who has in relation to such person been authorised thereto by the Commissioner by telegram or other writing, may, without previous notice, at any time during the day enter any premises whatsoever and on such premises search for and seize such certificates and, in carrying out such search, open or cause to be removed and open any article in which he suspects any such certificate to be contained.

(15) For the purposes of this Schedule any employees' tax certificate on which appears the name or any trade name of any employer shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been issued by such employer if such certificate is in a form approved by the Commissioner for general use and was supplied by the Commissioner to such employer for use by him or is in a form approved by the Commissioner under sub-paragraph (12) for use by such employer.

Employers to keep records and furnish returns.

14. (1) Every employer shall in respect of each employee maintain a record showing the amounts of remuneration paid or due by him to such employee and the amount of employees' tax deducted or withheld from each such remuneration, and such record shall be retained by the employer and shall be available for scrutiny by the Commissioner.

(2) Every employer shall when making any payment of employees' tax submit to the Commissioner a declaration in such form as the Commissioner may approve showing, in addition to other information that may be required, the total amounts included in such payment in respect of employees resident in Swaziland and employees resident outside Swaziland.

(3) Every employer shall —

(a) in respect of each year of assessment;

(b) if he ceases to carry on any business or other undertaking in respect of which he has paid or become liable to pay remuneration to any employee or otherwise ceases to be an employer, in respect of the period from the first day of July immediately preceding the date on which he has ceased to carry on such business or other undertaking or to be an employer, as the case may be, to the date on which he has so ceased to carry on such business or undertaking or to be an employer, as the case may be, within fourteen days after the end of the year of assessment or period in question, or within such longer time as the Commissioner may approve, render to the Commissioner a return, in such form as the Commissioner may approve, showing the names and addresses of all the persons who during such period were employees in relation to such employer and the total remuneration paid to or accrued to each employee in respect of such period and the total amount of employees' tax deducted or withheld from the remuneration of each such employee during such period.

(3A) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 19(1)(i), any employer who fails to comply with the provisions of paragraph 14(3) shall, while such failure to comply continues, be liable to a penalty not exceeding thirty Emalangeni for each day during which the failure continues. (Added A.9/1988; A.7/1992.)

(4) The Commissioner may call upon any employer to allow an auditor to examine his records to verify the accuracy with the employees' tax certificates.

Liability of representative employers and others.

16. (1) Every representative employer shall as regards the remuneration which he pays or is liable to pay to any employee in his representative capacity, be subject in all respects to the same duties, responsibilities and liabilities under this Schedule as if such remuneration was remuneration paid or liable to be paid by him in his personal capacity.

(2) Any employees' tax or interest on employees' tax or any penalty imposed under this Schedule shall be recoverable from the person who in terms of paragraph 11 is an employer by virtue of his having paid or become liable to pay remuneration in a fiduciary capacity, or in his capacity as a trustee in an insolvent estate, an executor, or an administrator of a benefit fund, pension fund, provident fund, retirement annuity fund or any other fund, or from the representative employer, but to the extent only of any assets belonging to the person, body, trust estate or fund represented or administered by him which may be in his possession or under his management, disposal or control, and sections 46 and 47 shall mutatis mutandis apply in the case of such first-mentioned person or representative employer, as if he were a representative taxpayer.

(4) An employer who has, under sub-paragraph (3), paid the Commissioner an amount which has, but should not have, been applied under sub-paragraph (1), may, if the amount was shown or included in the certificate because of a bona fide error, recover it from the employee concerned, and in such case sub-paragraph 5(3) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply.

(5) No employees' tax certificate shall be issued by the employer in respect of any amount recovered by him from the employee in terms of sub-paragraph (4), nor shall any such amount be included in any return rendered in terms of paragraph 14(3).

- (b) Every company which is a provisional taxpayer shall, during every period within which provisional tax is or may be payable by it as provided in this Part or any extension of such period granted in terms of paragraph 11(2), submit to the Commissioner, in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe, estimates of the total taxable income which will be derived by the company in respect of its financial year.
- (c) The amount of any estimate so submitted by a provisional taxpayer (other than a company) during the period referred to in paragraph 7(1)(a) or 8(1) any extension of such period granted in terms of paragraph 11(2), or by a company (as a provisional taxpayer) during the period referred to in paragraph 9(a)(i) or any extension of such period granted in terms of paragraph 11(2), shall, unless the Commissioner, having regard to the circumstances of the case, agrees to accept an estimate of a lower amount, not be less than the basic amount applicable to the estimate in question, as contemplated in item (d).
- (d) The basic amount applicable to any estimate submitted by provisional taxpayer under this paragraph shall, for the purposes of this paragraph and paragraph 5, be deemed to be in respect of:
- (i) an estimate submitted by a provisional taxpayer (other than a company) under item (a), the taxable income of the taxpayer, as assessed by the Commissioner, for the latest preceding year of assessment in relation to such estimate; or

(ii) as respects an estimate submitted by a company under item (b), the taxable income of the Company as assessed by the Commissioner, for the latest preceding year of assessment in relation to such an estimate.

(e) For the purposes of item (d), the latest preceding year of assessment in relation to any estimate under this paragraph shall be deemed to be the latest of the years of assessment —

(i) preceding the year of assessment in respect of which the estimate is made; and

(ii) in respect of which a notice of assessment relevant to the estimate has been issued by the Commissioner not less than twenty-one days before the date on which the estimate has been submitted to the Commissioner.

(2) If any provisional taxpayer fails to submit any estimate as required by sub-paragraph (1), the Commissioner may estimate the taxable income which is required to be estimated, and such estimate shall be final and conclusive.

(3) The Commissioner may call upon any provisional taxpayer to justify any estimate made by him in terms of sub-paragraph (1), or to furnish particulars of his income and expenditure or any other particulars that may be required and, if the Commissioner is dissatisfied with the said estimate he may increase the amount thereof to such an amount as he considers reasonable, and the estimate as increased shall be final and conclusive.

(4) Any estimate made by the Commissioner under sub-paragraph (2) or (3) shall be deemed to take effect in respect of the relevant period within which the provisional taxpayer is required to make any payment of provisional tax in terms of this Part, or within any extension of such period granted in terms of paragraph 11(2).

5. (1) If the final or last estimate of his taxable income made in terms of paragraph 4(1)(a) or (b) by a provisional taxpayer in respect of any year of assessment discloses an estimated amount of taxable income which is less than ninety percent of the amount of the actual taxable income in respect of which the estimate was made, as finally determined for that year under this Order, and which is also less than the basic amount applicable to the estimate in question, as contemplated in paragraph 4(1)(d), the taxpayer shall, subject to sub-paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) be required to pay to the Commissioner, in addition to the normal tax chargeable in respect of his taxable income for such year of assessment, an amount by way of additional tax equal to twenty percent of the difference between the amount of normal tax as calculated in respect of the amount of taxable income as so disclosed and the lesser of the following amounts, namely —

(a) the amount of normal tax calculated, at the rates applicable in respect of the said year of assessment, in respect of a taxable income equal to ninety percent of the said actual taxable income; and

(b) the amount of normal tax calculated in respect of a taxable income equal to the said basic amount, at the rates applicable in respect of that year.

(2) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that the amount of any estimate referred to in sub-paragraph (1) was not deliberately or negligently understated and was calculated with due regard to the factors having a bearing thereon, the Commissioner may in his discretion remit the additional tax or part thereof.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply in relation to any final or last estimate referred to in that sub-paragraph if the Commissioner has under the provisions of paragraph 4(3), increased such final or last estimate.

(4) Any decision of the Commissioner in the exercise of his discretion under sub-paragraph (2) shall be subject to objection and appeal.

Additional tax in the event of failure to submit an estimate of taxable income timeously.

6. (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3), where any provisional taxpayer is liable for the payment of normal tax in respect of any amount of taxable income derived by him during any year of assessment and he has not on or before the last day of that year or, if the period for the final or last payment of provisional tax by him in respect of such taxable income has under paragraph 11(2), been extended to a date later than the end of such year, on or before such date, submitted to the Commissioner an estimate of such taxable income as required by paragraph 4(1), the taxpayer shall, unless the Commissioner has estimated the said taxable income under paragraph 4(2), be required to pay to the Commissioner, in addition to the normal tax chargeable in respect of such taxable income, an amount by way of additional tax equal to twenty percent of the amount by which the normal tax payable by him in respect of such taxable income exceeds the sum of any amounts of provisional tax paid by him in respect of such taxable income within any period allowed for the payment of such provisional tax under this part or within any extension of such period under paragraph 11(2) and any amounts of employees tax deducted or withheld from his remuneration by his employer during such year. (Amended A.7/1992.)

(2) The Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that the provisional taxpayer's failure to submit such an estimate timeously was not due to an intent to evade or postpone the payment of provisional tax or normal tax, waive or remit the whole or any part of the additional tax imposed under sub-paragraph (1).

(3) Any decision of the Commissioner in the exercise of his discretion under sub-paragraph (2) shall be subject to objection and appeal.

Payments of provisional tax by provisional taxpayers (other than companies), whose income is not normally derived wholly or mainly from farming.

7. (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), provisional tax shall be paid by every provisional taxpayer (other than a company) in the following manner, namely —

- (b) not later than the last day of the year of assessment in question, an amount equal to the total estimated liability of such taxpayer (as finally determined in accordance with paragraph (2) for normal tax in respect of that year, less the sum of any employee's tax deducted by the taxpayer's employer from the taxpayer's remuneration during such year and the amount paid in terms of item (a).

(2) If the Commissioner has in terms of the proviso to section 33(13) of this Order agreed to accept accounts from any provisional taxpayer in respect of any year of assessment drawn to a date falling to a date before or after the end of such year, the period referred to in item (a) of sub-paragraph (1) shall, notwithstanding that sub-paragraph, be reckoned from such date as the Commissioner upon application of the taxpayer and having regard to the circumstances of the case may approve, and in such case the last day of such year of assessment shall for the purposes of item (b) of that sub-paragraph be deemed to be the day preceding the first anniversary of the said date.

(3) This paragraph shall not apply in the case of any provisional taxpayer in respect of whom the Commissioner has under item (a) of paragraph 12 directed that paragraph 8 shall apply.

Payment of provisional tax by provisional taxpayers (other than companies) whose income is normally derived wholly or mainly from farming.

8. (1) Every provisional taxpayer (other than a company) whose income is normally derived wholly or mainly from farming and in respect of whom the Commissioner has directed that this paragraph shall apply, shall not later than the last day of the year of assessment in question, pay by way of provisional tax an amount equal to the total estimated liability of such taxpayer (determined under paragraph 2) for normal tax in respect of that year, less the sum of the amounts of any employee's tax deducted by the taxpayer's employer from the taxpayer's remuneration during that year.

(2) If the Commissioner has in terms of the proviso to section 33(13) of this Order agreed to accept from any provisional taxpayer referred to in sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any year of assessment drawn to a date falling before or after the end of such year, the Commissioner may upon the application of the taxpayer direct that the last day of such year of assessment shall for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) be deemed to be such day of the Commissioner having regard to the circumstances of the case fixes.

Provisional tax payments by companies.

9. Provisional tax shall be paid by every company which is a provisional taxpayer in respect of the liability of the company for normal tax on taxable income in the following manner —

- (ii) not later than the last day of the financial year in question, an amount equal to the total estimated liability of such company (as determined under paragraph 2) for normal tax in respect of that year on taxable income so derived, less the amount paid in terms of sub-paragraph (i) of this paragraph.
- (iii) Within the period ending six months after the last day of that year, an amount equal to the total estimated liability of such company (as finally so determined) for normal tax in respect of that year less the sum of the amounts paid under subparagraphs (i) and (ii). (Added A.6/1994.)

Commissioner's discretion.

10. The Commissioner may absolve any provisional taxpayer from making payment of any amount of provisional tax payable in terms of paragraph 7(1)(a) or paragraph 8 or 9(i), if he is satisfied that the taxable income which may be derived by a taxpayer for the year of assessment in question cannot be estimated on the facts available at the time when payment of the amount in question has to be made.

Extension of time for payment of provisional tax.

11. (1) If after the end of any period within which provisional tax is payable in terms of this Schedule, the Commissioner has under paragraph 4(3) increased the amount of any estimate of taxable income submitted by any provisional taxpayer during such period, any additional provisional tax payable as a result of the Commissioner having made such increase shall, notwithstanding paragraphs 7, 8 and 9 be payable within such period as the Commissioner may determine.

(2) The Commissioner may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, extend the period within which any amount of provisional tax is to be paid, or may agree to accept payment of any such amount in equal or varying amounts.

(Amended A.7/1992.)

(2) The Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that the provisional taxpayer's failure to pay the amount of provisional tax was not due to an intent to evade or postpone payment of the tax, or otherwise evade or postpone payment of the tax, or otherwise evade his obligations under this Order, waive or remit the whole or any part of the penalty imposed under sub-paragraph (1).

Set off of provisional tax against tax liability of persons.

14. (1) There shall be set off against the liability of the taxpayer in respect of any normal tax due under this Order by the taxpayer, during any year of assessment, the amounts of provisional tax paid by the taxpayer, and,

- (a) if, in the case of any provisional taxpayer, the said amount of provisional tax exceeds the total liability for the said taxes, the Commissioner shall not be required to make any refund of the excess amount (or any portion thereof) standing to the taxpayer's credit, unless the Commissioner is satisfied, having regard to the circumstances of the case, that a refund of such excess amount (or a portion thereof) is warranted, and any amount (after the deduction of such excess amount refunded to the taxpayer) standing to the taxpayer's credit shall be set off against the taxpayer's liability for normal tax for which he is subsequently assessed by the Commissioner or may be set off in whole or in part against any amount of provisional tax which the taxpayer is required to pay under this Schedule; and
- (b) if, in the case of any taxpayer, the taxpayer's total liability for the aforesaid taxes exceed the sum of the said amounts of provisional tax, the amount of the excess shall be payable by the taxpayer to the Commissioner.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) shall not be construed as requiring any amount of provisional tax paid in respect of any year of assessment to be set off against any liability of the taxpayer before the taxpayer's liability for normal tax in respect of that year is determined by the Commissioner or, where such last mentioned liability has not been determined by the Commissioner, before the expiration of the period determined by the Commissioner.

(3) If the Commissioner, purporting to act under this paragraph, pays to any person by way of refund any amount which was not properly payable to that person under those provisions or which was in excess of the amount due to such person by way of refund under those provisions, such amount or the excess, as the case may be, shall forthwith be repaid by the person concerned to the Commissioner and shall be recoverable by the Commissioner under this Order as if it were a tax.

Refund procedure compliance.

15. No refund of provisional tax shall be made to the taxpayer concerned otherwise than as provided for in paragraph 14.

Offences.

16. Any person who fails to submit to the Commissioner any estimate of his taxable income as required under paragraph 4 shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand Emalangeni or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months, or both.
